

INDEX.

- Foreign exchange—
Continued. of, .599;
disturbance of in Siam, (>04; plans for stability of in Indo-China, 008; efforts to control by syndicate contract of 1.895, 091;
defects of syndicate
arrangement, 092;
turns in favor of New York, 715
- Formosa, provided with circulation by Bank of Taiwan, 506
- Fowler, Charles N.,
reports currency plan, 441; proposes currency commission, 446
- France, early banking in, 12; invaded by Italian subsidiary coin, 26;
origin of banking in, 32;
the Mississippi
Company and the plans of John Law, 83-39;
collapse of Law's system, 40; banking before the Revolution, 40-43;
issue of the assignats, 43; the Caisse des Comptes Courants and Caisse d'Escompte, 44;
foundation of Bank of France, 46; the independent
departmental banks, 48-52; effects of the double standard, 61;
functions of Bank of France, 69-71;
commercial interests
of in Algeria, 540;
collapse of credit in 1805, 614; effects of Napoleon's fall, 616;
abuse of credit in 1837, 630; condition in 1847, 635; benefits of gold discoveries, 644; craze for stock companies, 647; speculation in securities, 659
- France, Bank of,
foundation, 45;
reorganization by Napoleon, 46; resistance to monopoly of the bank, 50; suspension of specie payments in 1848, 51; assists
railway enterprises, 53;
condition influenced by war with Germany, 54;
threatened by the Commune, 55; assists in paying war
indemnity, 56-59;
embarrassed by variations between gold and silver, 60;
changes in legal limit of circulation from 1884, 66; contest over re:ic\val of charter, 67; ownership and organization, 68;
relation of discounts to note issues, 70;
changes in discount
rate, 71; influences affecting discount policy, 72; changes in gold and silver stock, 73; policy in buying gold, 75; taxes paid to government, 76;
number of branches,
77; aids London market, 136; dangerous position of in 1805, 614; expansion of discounts in 1810, 615; fall of metallic reserve in 1818, 6.19; strong position in 1825, 623;
loans to Bank of England in 1839, 630;
purchases of gold in 1847, 635; losses of gold in 1857, 642;
unable to aid American market in 1907, ^716
- Franco-Prussian War,
effect on Bank of France, 54-59; effect on National Bank of Belgium, 279-91; cost of, 653; effect on Germany, 654; effect on Bank of Bngland, 657;
effect on France, 659
- Frederiksen on evils of depreciated Swedish notes, 273
- Free banking,
illustrated by Swiss system, 304; tinder free banking law of New York, 374; issues by individuals, 375;
similar laws adopted in Western States, 377;
failure in Wisconsin,
3X9
- Freeholders* Bank,
suspension in 1908, 300
- French Revolution, effect on banking in Italy, 17; on credit in France" 43; upon Bank of England, 9JV-08
- French West Africa,
banking in, 551
- Fuggers, origin of the Illnusc, 11; operations in South America, 12
- G
- Gallatin, Albert, supports Bank of the United ^ States, 340; opinion of s*ecie susi>cnstion, 341